

Supporting Teachers to make Overall Teacher Judgments – components of moderation

The components	What we already do	What's new?	What do we need to do next?
1. Shared understanding of reference materials used to make decisions, including definition of terms.
2. Shared understanding of progressions in the reference materials.
3. Shared understanding of what to notice and recognise when making decisions.
4. Processes to ensure judgments in relation to reference materials are made in a similar way.
